Office of the Chief Commandant,

Mysore State Troops,

Bangalore, 13th September 1921.

Dear Mr. Mirza Mahomed Ismail,

I reached Bangalore yesterday by 2 P.M. and had an interview with the Dewan Sahib immediately regarding the situation at the Imperial Service Lancers. I proceeded to the Imperial Service Lancers soon after and had a straight talk with the discontented men. The majority of these people immediately agreed to resume their duties and a few of these that were wavering yesterday have also since returned to their work. I hope there will be no further serious trouble.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- T. Chama Raj Urs.
